

19 January 2024

Job Openings for Field Investigators

Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam invites applications for two positions of Field Investigators to work on a research project titled "The Impact of Digital Economy on Informal Sector Growth in India: A Multidimensional Analysis" under the RUSA Scheme.

Job Profile:

- Conducting field surveys and data collection
- Interacting with various sections of society across different regions in India
- Gathering data using digital tools and maintaining confidentiality
- Travelling extensively to survey locations
- Analysing and documenting findings

Eligibility:

- Master's degree in any discipline
- Experience in field investigation and surveys
- Proficiency in regional languages - Hindi, Tamil, Malayalam, Telugu etc.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Willingness to travel extensively
- Integrity, adaptability and problem-solving attitude

Desirable:

- Knowledge of digital data collection tools
- Background in economics/informal sector/digital economy

Duration: 3 months

Remuneration: Rs. 20,000 per month

How to Apply:

Email your CV, experience certificates and other relevant documents in a single PDF file to rusaproject23@gmail.com by 28th January 2024, 5pm. Contact phone number: 9847515394

Shortlisted candidates will be informed about the interview date and details via email.

For further details, contact:

Dr. Rajesh M, Principal Investigator Email: r.many@mgu.ac.in Phone: 903743935